FACTS

WHAT DOES WINTRUST WEALTH MANAGEMENT DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Information you provide to us on applications or other forms (such as your name, address, social security number, spouse and dependents, investment objectives, income, and net worth).
- Information about your transactions or experience with us and our affiliated companies (such as purchases, sales, wire instructions, and account balances).
- Information from a consumer-reporting agency.
- Information we receive as a result of verifying customer information.
- Information we receive as a result of your account inquiries by mail, e-mail, telephone, or web site usage (including any information captured through our use of “cookies”).
